CN 50
TOWER

ICONIC SINCE 1976

Rediscover your WOW!

Plan your visit at cntower.ca

CN Tower defines the skyline for 50 years

Rising above Toronto at a height that once made it the tallest free-standing structure in the world, the Tower quickly became more than an engineering project - it became a national symbol. As Canadians celebrate the CN Tower's 50th anniversary, the milestone offers a chance to reflect on what the landmark has meant to the country and why it still matters today.

When construction began in the 1970s, the Tower represented confidence and ambition. Canada was proving it could compete on the world stage in architecture, technology, and urban development. The CN Tower helped solve communication problems caused by Toronto's growing skyline, but it also sent a broader message: Canada was modern, innovative, and looking upward. For decades, tourists from around the globe have associated the Tower with Canada itself.

Yet the CN Tower's importance goes beyond tourism and postcard images. It has served as a backdrop for national celebrations, sports victories, and charitable events. Lit in different colours to recognize causes and communities, the Tower has evolved into a shared public symbol that reflects the diversity and spirit of modern Canada.

While Toronto's skyline has grown dramatically around it, the Tower still stands at the centre of the city's identity — not because it is the tallest anymore, but because it continues to unite history, culture, and aspiration in one unmistakable landmark.

Half a century later, the CN Tower is not simply a structure of steel and concrete. It is a monument to Canadian ambition, resilience, and imagination.

ULTIMATE ROAD TRIP

Your guide to Nature in YDH!

Story by
Katherine Ryalen

When your world gets overwhelming with all things on-line and digital, align yourself with nature on an ultimate road trip. Pack your friends and family into your vehicle and head to York Durham Headwaters, just north of Toronto, for some timeless outdoor fun. Reconnect with your loved ones, recharge with good friends, and enjoy all that nature has to offer in YDH. Here are a few of our favourite ultimate road trip ideas to get you started.

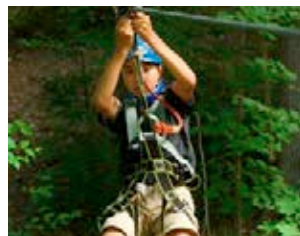

For the wee ones

Give the littles in your group a bird's-eye view of the Ganaraska Forest at Treetop Trekking in Stouffville. Their small legs may hinder them from seeing above the crowds, but the kids you're road tripping with will love the Treewalk Village designed especially for them. It's an enchanting world of wooden fortresses, winding slides, rope bridges and hammocks high up in the treetops. Or, give your tiny people the thrill of flying through the Oak Ridges Moraine with a kid-friendly zipline course at Treetop Eco-Adventure Park in Oshawa.

Keep your teen keen

It's hard to get those teenagers in your crew gassed up about hanging with the fam when the vibes are too high with their gang to be seen having fun. Your solution is to take them on a road trip to one of our forests and conservation areas for some good old-fashioned cycling. The Mansfield Outdoor Centre in Mulmur, Trail Hub in Uxbridge, or The ROC in Georgina are all lowkey great options for reminding your teens that they used to be nonchalant, and that zipping around on their bikes is legit something they used to think was fire. For one afternoon your teen will think you're goats because they'll forget to be chill when no one is around to watch. (And yes, we have been advised by authentic teenagers that our attempt at youth-speak is, like, lowkenuinely cringe.)

DISCOVER YOUR WILD SIDE*IN A FOREST
NEAR YOU*Please your passionate putters

It is no secret that YDH is a golfer's paradise. We are home to many exceptional courses which will challenge even the most skilled putter in your group. But we're also known for being a craft brewer's paradise, with many award-winning beers, ciders and wines. Have an adults-only day and drive out to Hockley Valley Resort for a few hours on their championship course, then hop over to Adamo Estate Winery—literally next door—for internationally awarded Ontario wines. Work on your eagle at Angus Glen Golf Club, another of our championship courses, then take a short drive to Rouge River Brewing Company for some small-batch beers that are primarily hop-forward and sour. Bask in the exceptional beauty of Royal Ashburn Golf Club, awarded Armorial Bearings by the late Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Then, take a short spin north to sample Canada's largest collection of unique heritage heirloom apple cider varieties at Slabtown Cider Co.

ONTARIO

Log off.
Drift away.
Hello cruising in South Eastern Ontario.

The 1000 Islands isn't just a place you visit, it's a place you drift through.

Where castle views, quiet shorelines, and sparkling waterways reveal why this corner of South Eastern Ontario is considered one of the world's most beautiful freshwater destinations.

Where History Meets Play

Family Time in SDG Counties

Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry Counties (SDG Counties) offer a rich blend of history, outdoor adventure, and family-friendly discovery, making it an ideal destination for a memorable day trip or weekend getaway in South Eastern Ontario.

Step back in time at the Historic SDG Jail, one of the oldest jails in Ontario. Families can explore the original cells, hear fascinating stories of past inmates, and experience a hands-on introduction to 19th-century justice. It's an engaging way to bring local history to life for curious young minds.

A short drive away, Upper Canada Village offers an immersive journey into the 1860s. This living history village features heritage buildings, costumed interpreters, farm animals, and working mills. Kids can watch traditional crafts in action, help with chores, and experience what daily life looked like in early rural Ontario.

Nearby, the Lost Villages Museum tells the compelling story of communities that were submerged during the creation of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Through restored buildings and exhibits, families gain insight into a unique chapter of Canadian history, one that continues to resonate today.

For outdoor fun, the Long Sault Parkway is a must. This scenic route stretches across a series of islands, offering sandy beaches, picnic areas, cycling paths, and calm waters perfect for swimming and paddling. It's an ideal spot to relax, play, and reconnect with nature.

A visit to the Upper Canada Migratory Bird Sanctuary offers families a peaceful and engaging way to connect with nature along the St. Lawrence River. With over eight kilometres of well-maintained trails, it's an ideal spot for walking, cycling, or even a stroller-friendly outing. Together, these attractions showcase the diversity of experiences waiting for you and your family in SDG Counties.

Where history, nature, and family fun come together effortlessly.

Behind Bars

Step into one of South Eastern Ontario's most intriguing historic sites

A visit to the Historic SDG Jail offers a unique and immersive experience. With options to take a bilingual, self-guided tour or a more immersive guided tour, the Jail has something for everyone.

Built in 1833, the Historic SDG Jail served as both a maximum- and minimum-security jail until its closure in 2002. Designated a heritage site in 2001, the Jail remains one of Ontario's oldest correctional facilities and an iconic local landmark. Carefully preserved, its stone walls reveal stories of crime, punishment, and daily life behind bars. Children and adults alike are often fascinated by the hands-on elements—stepping inside a cell, hearing stories of daring escapes, and learning about the daily routines of inmates and guards.

While the subject matter is serious, the interpretation is engaging and educational, making it an ideal stop for families and history seekers alike. Seasonal tours, new exhibits, and special events, including themed and evening experiences, add another layer of discovery for repeat visitors.

Located in the heart of Cornwall, the Historic SDG Jail pairs easily with waterfront parks, local dining, and other heritage attractions, creating a well-rounded day trip. Unlock the past at The Historic SDG Jail and experience a powerful connection to the region's history.
